TRANSPORT WARREN.

The Transport Warren arrived off port at about 3:15 p. m. yesterday. The pilot boat went out and Dr. Wood mounted the gang plank. No sooner had he done this than he was seized by a quartermaster and held at the orders of Captain Pierce who was very much afraid of the plague. He wanted to see Dr. Carmichael which really would have done him no good whatever. Dr. Wood returned to the pilot boat while Captain Pierce held a consultation with officers on the bridge. Then the captain summoned Pilot Cameron aboard.

As the latter was about to respond to the call Dr. Wood said: "If you go aboard Captain Cameron, I will quarantine you. No one goes in that transport before me." Naturally, Captain Cameron sat down again and announced the situation to Captain Pierce who in a half minute said in a very weak voice: "All right. Come aboard doctor."

Dr. Wood was aboard a short time and finding everything all right, came ashore in the pilot boat. The Warren anchored and, later on, when Dr. Carmichael arrived, came to the Pacific Mail wharf. The scare over the people aboard were permitted ashore.

Captain Hart, the former captain sustained an accident in San Francisco and was unable to come. Captain Pierce is a new man. The Warren has a lot of officers with 600 recruits and others aboard.

Aorangi in Port.

The R. M. S. Aorangi arrived in port and hauled alongside the Pacific Mail wharf at 8:15 a. m. today. She left Sydney on April 24 at 1:15 p. m. and cleared Sydney Heads at 2 p. m. Fine weather with southwesterly winds prevailed to Brisbane, which was reached at 6 a. m. on the 26th. Left again at 3:30 a. m. on the 27th. Passed the R. M. S. Warrimoo at 4:40 p. m. same day. Met strong S. E. winds with heavy sea until May 3d, on which day the equator was crossed. Squally weather with passing showers were then experienced. Northeast trades set in on the 4th, and on the 6th became strong with heavy sea and continuous rain on the 8th. Under the management of a committee, deck games and sports were held and concerts given in the evening. The Aorangi brings 76 live sheep.

O. S. S. Australia.

The Australia hauled alongside the Oceanic wharf at a little before 5 o'clock this morning after an uneventful trip from San Francisco. Purser McComb reports as follows: "Left San Francisco May 2d at 2:15 p. m. with 24 cabin and 28 steerage passengers, as well as 200 bags of mail. Experienced light variable winds and smooth sea, and fine weather all the way. Time, 6 days, 15 hours."
